MRS. MICHAEL EDWARD FARRIS
the former Miss Kitty Garland Simpson

Wed In Double Ring Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Kitty Garland Simpson to Michael Edward Farris took place at 3 p.m. on Saturday, August 16, at the Liberty Baptist Church in Appomattox.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Simpson of Appomattox and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Edward Farris of Lynchburg.

The Rev. H. Doyle Chauncey, pastor of the church, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride was escorted and given in marriage by her father, and she wore a gown fashioned of bridal satin in an empire silhouette. The bodice of satin was enhanced with chantilly lace with a portrait neckline and short sleeves. Appliques of Venice lace lighted the skirt. Her fingertip veil of imported illusion was bordered with chantilly lace and daisy trim.

She carried a colonial bouquet consisting of pink sweetheart roses and white miniature carnations and baby's breath.

Miss Janet Hall of Appomattox, was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Patricia Harden, of Appomattox; Miss Teresa McGuire of Appomattox, Mrs. James Farrar, sister of the bridegroom; and Miss Sharon Snyder, both of Lynchburg.

Mr. Farris was his son's best man and ushers were Wayne Simpson, brother of the bride, of Appomattox; William Farris, brother of the bridegroom, Jack Staton, Ronald Staton, and Ricky Hall, cousin of the bridegroom; all of Lynchburg.

Miss Sarah Mitchell of Appomattox, was the bride's flower girl and Master Ray Hall of Lynchburg, was the ring bearer.

The bride's mother wore a floor length gown of blue with an orchid corsage.

The groom's mother wore a floor length gown of pink with an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Joyce Vaughan, of Appomattox, was organist and provided a program of nuptial music. Mr. John Hall of Appomattox, sang "Because", and Miss Pamela Chenault, of Appomattox, sang "Ave Maria.

Miss Patsy Hughes, of Appomattox, and Mrs. Jack Staton, of Lynchburg, attended the bridal registers. Mrs. Nannie Mae Davidson was mistress of ceremonies. Assisting helpers for the reception included Mrs. Raymond Hall, Mrs. Sidney Hughes, Mrs. Oscar Raymond Hall, Mrs. Robert Almond, Jr., Mrs. Paul Goin, and Mrs. Oral Ferguson.

Following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained with a reception in the fellowship hall of the church.

The bride is a graduate of Appomattox County High School, and attended Central Virginia Community College. She is employed at Wilkes Jewelers.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Rustburg High School and is employed with Merridith Burda in Lynchburg.

After a southern wedding trip, the couple will make their home in Appomattox.

MRS. JESSE WILLARD MORGAN
the former Miss Janet Ruth Hix

Wed In Evening Ceremony

Miss Janet Ruth Hix and Mr. Jesse Willard Morgan were united in marriage on Saturday, August 16, at 8 p.m. at Elon Baptist Church in Pamplin. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson Hix of Pamplin and the bridegroom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Willard Morgan.

The Reverend John Patrick Campbell, pastor of Elon Baptist Church, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

A program of nuptial music was provided by Miss Christine Dickerson. Mrs. Harry Byrd Elam served as mistress of ceremonies. Miss Vicki Dickerson attended the guest book.

The bride, escorted and given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white organza over taffeta, fashioned in an Empire silhouette. A wide bertha of Venise lace enhanced the portrait neckline and lace formed the cap sleeves. The A-line skirt bordered in a band of lace scallops flowed into a chapel train. The fingertip veil of silk illusion was edged in matching lace.

The bride carried a white Bible covered with white daisies, carnations, and baby's breath.

Miss Jane Hix of Pamplin was her cousin's maid of honor. She wore a floor length gown of white dotted swiss with embossed colored flowers. It was fashioned into a V-neckline with puffed sleeves and a flared skirt. She carried a nosegay of white daisies and baby's breath.

The other attendants were Miss Cynthia Hix of Pamplin, cousin of the bride, Miss Frances Womack of Farmville and Miss Lisa Franklin of Evergreen, cousins of the groom. Miss Joan Coleman of Appomattox, and Miss Marsha Couch of Lynchburg. Their gowns and nosegays were identical to the maid of honor's.

Mr. William C. Perrow of Appomattox was best man. Mr. Roger Spangler of Vinton, Va., Mr. Tom Hix and Master Jim Hix of Pamplin, brothers of the bride, Mr. Brent Washburn of Appomattox, and Mr. Steve Castigioni of Mountain Lakes, New Jersey, served as groomsmen.

Immediately following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained with a reception in the church fellowship hall.

The bride's mother wore a formal length gown of pink floral design. She wore a corsage of pink cymbidium orchids.

The bride will continue her studies at Radford College this fall. The groom will continue his education at VPI & SU.

After a Southern wedding trip, the couple will reside in Radford, Va.

Touring America

Wojtek Bruszewski, a native of Warsaw, Poland, has been touring the U.S.A. by bus for the past 11 weeks. He is now an architect and makes his home in West Berlin. He has his Masters degree in Architecture from the Technical University of Warsaw.

He has visited Canada and toured many of the largest cities in the mid-west and on the west coast.

After being a guest of Mrs. Rachel F. Lawson over the week end, Mr. Bruszewski left Tuesday for Washington, D.C. where he will spend a few days and fly to Berlin from New York on August 28. Mrs. Lawson was in Poland in 1967 and his mother, Christine Bruszewski was an English interpreter, and did much to make her trip more pleasant.

"It has always been my desire to travel in the U.S.A. and this trip has been more wonderful than I anticipated. The people are most friendly, the scenery beautiful, and the food excellent," said Wojtek to Mrs. Lawson.

Entertainment

On June 27, Miss Ida Roach, Mrs. Martha Lee, and friends of Centenary United Methodist Church gave a miscellaneous shower in the home of Mrs. Jack Ramsey. The shower was attended by many relatives and friends. The couple received many nice and useful gifts.

July 5, Mrs. Louise Rosser, Mrs. Sara Wayne and Mrs. Margaret Dudley of Elon Baptist Church in Pamplin gave a miscellaneous shower. The shower was well attended and the couple received many nice gifts.

On July 12 Mrs. Robert Carson entertained the bride with a lingerie shower in her home. Many beautiful gifts were given the bride.

July 16, Mrs. Mamie Jones and women of Madisonville Presbyterian Church had a buffet dinner followed by a miscellaneous shower for the bride in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Roberts. Many friends were present and it was enjoyed by all.

On July 19 the bride and groom-elect were entertained with a buffet dinner given by Mrs. Walter Deal in the home of Mr. Robert McClenny of Pamplin. The meal was enjoyed by all.

July 22, Mrs. Bobby Nash had a cook-out in honor of the bride and groom-elect. Relatives and friends were present.

The after rehearsal party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Harvey, parents of the groom, in the fellowship hall of Elon Baptist Church in Pamplin.

Will Begin Graduate School

Jane Garrett Schweitzer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle N. Garrett of Concord will begin graduate study at Virginia Tech and S. U. in Human Nutrition in September 1975. She completed her bachelor's degree requirements in March and received a degree in Nutrition and Community Service in June 1975 from VPI & SU. During her undergraduate years, Jane was a member of the Techmates, a Woman's Choral group, and participated in some intra mural sports. She was selected for member in Phi Kappa Phi, Phi Upsilon Omnicron, a Home Economics Honorary Association and Sigma Laubda Sigma, a senior Women's Honorary Association. In addition she served as accessories committee, co-chairman for the class of 1975 Ring Dance. Jane and her husband, Lyle, presently live in Blacksburg.
